REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DEPORTMENT AND WORK OF THE MINISTRY.

We, the Committee on Deportment and Work of the Ministry, beg to report, that we find nothing derogatory to the deportment and work of the ministers of our body except we find that Elders J. W. Moore and W. L. Godwin have failed to make any report to our committee.

We recommend that their names be continued and they be cautioned to be more punctual in the future.

A. W. GREGORY,
J. L. ALPHIN,
R. H. ALLEN,
N. T. BAREFOOT,
Committee.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE AND ORDAINING COUNCIL COMBINED.

We, the Council and Committee appointed to investigate the case of Bro. W. R. Glover, beg to report that we recommend that the name of Brother Glover be placed upon the roll of ministers, granting him all the rights of an ordained minister.

J. F. HILL,
LUNDA LEE,
ROBT. STRICKLAND,
J. L. ALPHIN,
N. T. BAREFOOT,
R. H. ALLEN,
A. W. GREGORY,
Committee.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

We, the committee on Education, beg to report as follows:

We are rejoiced to know that our people are making some progress along the educational line, and that they are being aroused to the fact that literary attainments better qualify us for the duties and responsibilities of life.

We urge that all of our ministers study to show themselves approved of God.

We further recommend Falcon as a worthy institution of learning.

Respectfully submitted,
J. A. BLAYLOCK,
H. W. JERNIGAN,
Committee.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

We, your Committee on Temperance, beg to report as follows:

Seeing the great evil of intemperance we recommend that all of our ministers and laity take a decided stand against it, live against it and preach against it, and do all in their power to drive the awful monster from our land.

We especially ask the young ladies to refuse the company and association of all when under the influence of strong drink.

Respectfully,
LUNDA LEE.

REPORT OF ORDAINING COUNCIL.

We, the Ordaining Council, beg to report, that we have examined all applicants coming before us for examination and have found Brothers D. R. Ennis, J. R. Wallace and D. C. Johnson orthodox in the faith of the Free Will Baptist church and have set them apart to the full work of the ministry by prayer, a charge and the laying on of hands of the Presbytery.

We have also examined Elder J. A. Suggs, a former minister, and find him orthodox and ask that their names be enrolled as ordained ministers.

Respectfully,
J. F. HILL,
LUNDA LEE,
ROBT. STRICKLAND,
Ordaining Council.

SECOND REPORT OF ORDAINING COUNCIL.

We, the Ordaining Council, met at Dunn, Nov. 16th, as ordered by the Conference, to examine Elder W. R. Coats, and we find him not orthodox on the subject of Sanctification as laid down in the discipline,

Respectfully,
J. F. HILL,
LUNDA LEE,
ROBT. STRICKLAND,
Ordaining Council.

OBITUARY OF ELDER J. M. LANGDON.

We, the Committee on Obituaries ask to submit the following:

With sad hearts we announce that death has visited us since last Conference and taken from our midst, Elder James Merritt Langdon. Brother Langdon died or fell asleep in Jesus October, 1910, born February, 1863. Age at death 47 years and 8 months.

He gave his heart and life to the Savior at a very early age. He first joined the Christian Church and remained there for some time, but afterward, being fully convinced that the doctrine of the Free Will Baptist church was more in harmony with the teaching of the word of God, he connected himself with it. In living the Christian life he was conscious of the need of a deeper work of grace in his heart. Receiving the light of sanctification about twelve years ago he consecrated himself and his all to God, and was instantaneously delivered from inbred sin and sanctified wholly according to 1st Thes. 5:23; John 17:17.

After he received this blessed experience the burden of lost souls was heavy upon him, and being conscious of the divine call to preach the gospel, he applied to his church for license on Saturday before the second Sunday in June, 1900. He was ordained and set apart to the full work of the ministry in 1901.

He was called to the pastoral care of several churches and served them all faithfully. He preached the fourfold gospel and earnestly contended for it. Took Jesus by faith as his healer, and fully trusted God for his body as well as his soul.

Not having the light of Pentecostal baptism, and the visitation of the spirit, and power of God being so fully manifest in his life at times, he, as many others was persuaded that he had the baptism of the Holy Ghost, as they received it on the day of Pentecost.

But during that memorable meeting at Dunn, N. C., which was held during the winter of 1906 and 1907, when the latter rain began to be poured out in this country, and the saints who had come together from the different parts of the United States to tarry for the promise of the Father, received the baptism of the Holy Ghost, and began to speak in other tongues as the spirit gave them utterance, according to Acts 2:4; 10:46; 19:6.

He was there convinced that he had not received the Pentecostal Baptism, and at once became an earnest seeker and was filled with the Holy Ghost sometime during the year of 1907, and spoke in other tongues.

Brother Langdon enjoyed the indwelling comforter, and earnestly contended for the doctrine till death.

In his death, the Conference sustains a loss but we feel assured that our loss is his eternal gain.

We do not mourn for him as one that we have no hope for, for we believe that he has fallen asleep in Jesus, and that He will bring him with Him when He comes.

Respectfully submitted,
J. A. BLAYLOCK,
LUNDA LEE, Committee.
